

*Intrepid
Landcare*

NEXTGEN
LANDCARE

#NEXTGENLANDCARE

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

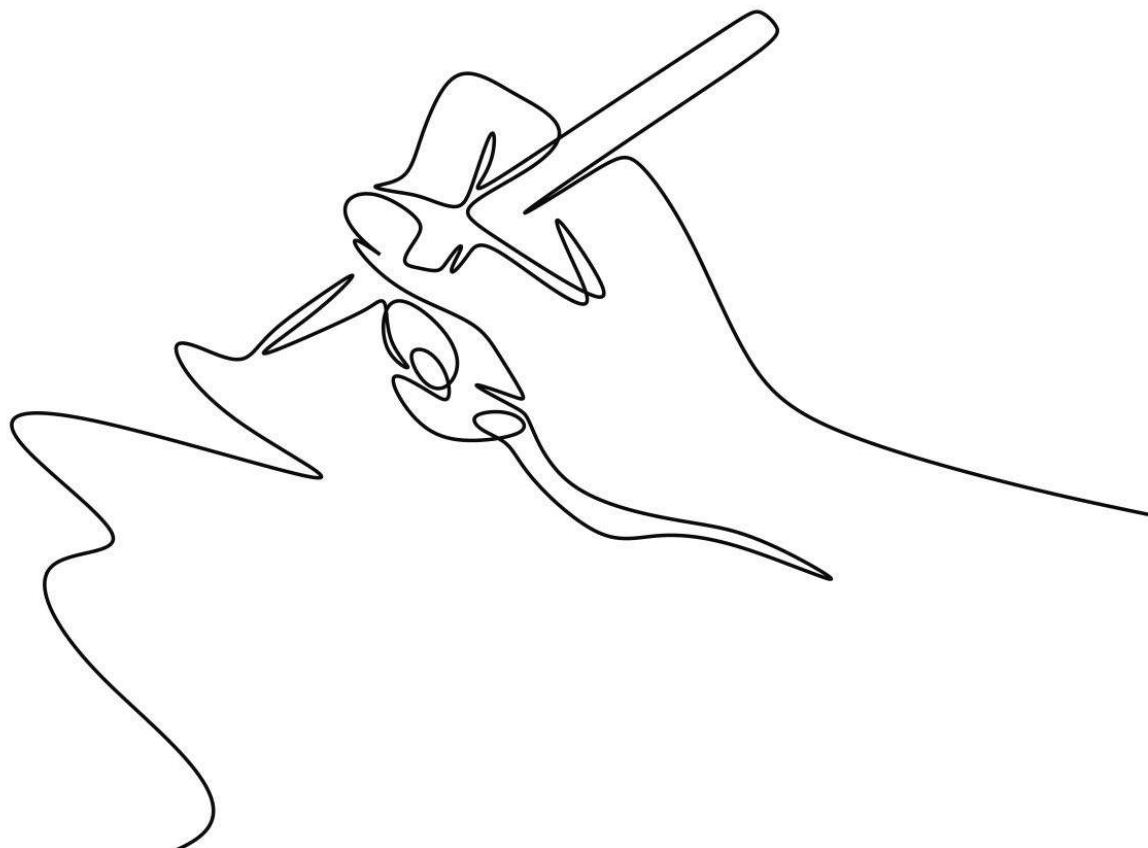

AN INTREPID WAY FORWARD

Scribbles & Notes

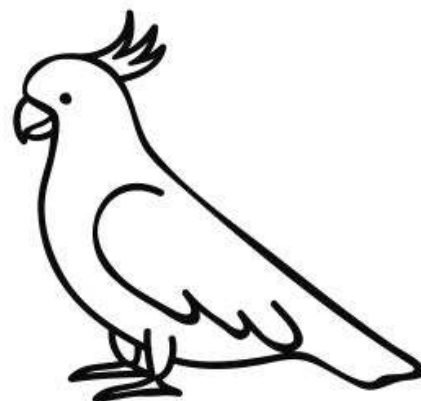

YOUNG PEOPLE CONNECTING WITH AND CARING FOR COUNTRY

JOSHUA GILBERT

*Intrepid
Landcare*

#NEXTGENLANDCARE

DHANI GILBERT

A LITTLE BIT OF CONTEXT

^ Collecting weaving materials on Wiradjuri Country, 2022, Central West NSW

^ Tent Embassy 50th Anniversary and Invasion Day March, January 2022, Canberra

^ Global School Strike for Climate, September 2019, Canberra

^ Cultural burning workshops with Koori Country Firesticks and Waluwin Ngurambang, 2020 – 2022, ACT and NSW

< Weaving workshops with First Nations highschool and college students

^ Planting native plants in the Dickson College Gardens

^ Health checking turtle hatchlings before releasing them into Jerrabomberra Wetlands, 2018

^ Releasing turtle hatchlings into Jerrabomberra Wetlands, 2018

^ Conducting echidna population surveys at Mulligans Flat Woodland Sanctuary, 2018

^ Preparing to plant native plants with Kickstart my Career through Culture team, May 2021, Goorooyaroo Nature Reserve

^ Planting native plants with Kickstart My Career through Culture team, May 2021, Goorooyaroo Nature Reserve

^ Wiradjuri Language students, 2020, Charles Sturt University Wagga Wagga

^ Wiyi Yani U Thangani (Women's Voices) community consultation, 2018, Canberra

REFLECTION

What is something new or interesting that came up for you when listening to Joshua and Dhani's presentations?

Share in the chat!

